

JOHN HEMMER & THE SHOWGIRLS

Documentary short, 35min TRT

Logline: Singer John Hemmer reunites with his band of showgirls from the famed Lou Walters' World Famous Latin Quarter nightclub in New York City, and in doing so, finds renewed purpose.

Short Synopsis: Told through the personal artistic journey of retired singer John Hemmer, this documentary chronicles a unique period in live entertainment history. John and his fellow entertainers, all of whom performed during America's nightclub heyday of the 1950s and '60s, offer a behind the scenes peek into the era like no other. And despite life's challenges along the way, Hemmer and his band of showgirls continue to resurrect the famed Latin Quarter nightclub's legacy and in doing so discover renewed purpose.
